Acoustic Eidolon Concert

Unity Five Cities (Arroyo Grande)

Acoustic Eidolon, featuring Joe Scott on double neck guitjo and Hannah Alkire on cello with their signature "new acoustic" sound and boundless possibilities in blending Celtic, Folk, World and Latin music influences. Their original sound is created by the mixing of their diverse musical backgrounds and their unusual instrumentation including the one-of-a-kind double neck guitjo, an instrument of Joe's own design praised by USA Today as a "beautiful harp-like sounding instrument ... like nothing we've ever heard before." Classically-trained cellist Hannah Alkire studied with G. Magyar of the Hungarian String Quartet and is recognized internationally for her stunning tone and emotional, impeccable playing and for taking the cello places it's never been before.

You Don't Have to Do This Alone

Ministry can be a mixed bag; rewarding, challenging and sometimes lonely. As Regional Chaplain, I am offering my services to you as a partner in ministry.

I am here if you would like to pray, vent, or if you would like a companion on your journey.

I have been making quarterly calls to each of you (I hope you are getting your messages) to offer support and remind you of upcoming events in the region.

Additionally, UWM has approached me to work with our region to be a Prayer Chaplain, making monthly calls and leaving prayers on your voice mail. Please let me know of significant events in your life for which you would like support.

If you do not want to receive my calls as Regional Chaplain or monthly calls in my role as UWM chaplain please let me know.

My number is: 707-279-1580, my email is unitymargaretf@gmail.com

Many blessings and my love to you all.

Rev. Margaret Flick
